

MINUTES FOR THE COURT OF APPEAL
STATE OF CALIFORNIA
SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT

May 19, 2006

DIVISION THREE

B186276 People (Not for Publication)
v.
Sanchez

The judgment is affirmed in part and reversed in part. The trial court is instructed to modify the judgment to reflect: (1) that a sentence of two years and four months in state prison was imposed for the attempted murder conviction in count 2; and (2) that the sentences imposed on counts 3 and 4 were stayed pursuant to section 654. As so modified, the judgment is affirmed. In addition, the abstract of judgment is to be corrected so that it reflects the 25-year-to-life firearm use enhancement on count 2 was imposed pursuant to section 12022.53, subdivision (d). The trial court is directed to prepare an amended abstract of judgment reflecting these modifications and corrections, and forward the abstract of judgment to the Department of Corrections.

DIVISION SEVEN

B182738 Ross (Certified for Publication)
v.
Figueroa

The judgment is reversed and the cause remanded to the trial court with instructions to hold a new hearing within 30 days after issuance of this court's remittitur, if Ross still desires a protective order, at which hearing both parties shall be allowed to present oral as well as written evidence. It is further ordered the protective order remain in force until the conclusion of this new hearing or 30 days after the issuance of the remittitur, should no such hearing take place. Should there be a hearing and the trial court determines proper grounds exist for continuation of a protective order, it may issue a permanent protective order for the original term, that is, through February 3, 2008, or a lesser period of time.
